

The Most Innovative Sensory And Immersive Space For Themed Imaginative Play.

OVERVIEW

PODS recognise how hard it can be to engage in play, learning or relaxation time with children living with hearing disabilities, learning difficulties and other sensory needs such as autism. Gone are the days where the parents of children living with difficulties are faced with the daunting prospect of unsupervised or unsuitable environments for their children.

EXPLORE AND ADVENTURE

Whether or not your child has learning difficulties, autism or hearing problems, the sensory tent becomes a place for them to hideaway and spend time as an individual. These PODS have already been introduced in many homes across the world, but have also been seen in specialist schools, hospitals, hospices, creches, respite centres and hotels.
